

Telephone frames - Clipsal by Schneider Electric

Telephone frames

Backmount and Clip-on frames provide a simple solution for mounting modules.

Clipsal's frames are fully compatible with leading voice manufacturer products, and can be interlocked with existing communications infrastructure. Available for use as a main distribution frame, intermediate distribution frame or a floor distribution point.

Features and Benefits

- Fully compatible with leading frame styles
- Accepts all modules
- Metal covers available
- Can be linked to pre-existing installations
- Compatible with leading voice manufacturer products